

Meet Ed Habbershon: Oneida Township's New Code Officer

Oneida Township welcomes our new Code Enforcement Officer, Ed Habbershon. Mr. Habbershon has been a resident of Huntingdon for most of his life. He was in the army for thirteen years, his rank upon leaving was Armored Tanks Staff Sargent.

He has been married for 29 years, to Teresa, and has three daughters, Maxine, Myra and Miranda who all live in Huntingdon. He also has a dachshund named Sophie.

Mr. Habbershon enjoys playing golf locally and traveling to different ball fields to umpire.

He worked at SCI-Huntingdon for 26 years, coached girls fast-pitched softball at Juniata College for 13 years and has been the Zoning and Permitting Officer for residential and commercial buildings at Smithfield Township for 6 years.

Oneida Township is excited to have Mr. Habbershon on board as part of our Staff and we are looking forward to working with him.
